Final Exam Attendance Policy and Expectations

All AMSA students are expected to take final exams on the designated days in June as listed on the school’s academic calendar. Missing a final exam will result in earning a grade of a “0” for the missed exam unless excused for the following reasons:

- An excused absence from school as defined in the Student Parent Handbook under the Attendance section.
- Participation in an educational or leadership program pre-approved by administration.

Please keep in mind that AMSA is required to operate the school for 180 days per year and depending on the weather, school could be scheduled out as far as June 30th, which means finals could potentially be scheduled during those last few days of June.

Please note that family vacations are considered unexcused absences. Family vacations should be scheduled for well after the last day of school including the five (5) pre-scheduled snow days.

Student Parent Handbook (Attendance / Unexcused Absences)

- Family vacations and early departure for summer employment/vacation/camps have a significant impact on a student’s overall attendance record and may jeopardize credit. Family vacations are considered unexcused absences. Therefore, absences due to family vacations should be avoided.
